

LECs control an essential service point into my home and office, but cannot or will not, because of their size and power, provide me with the services I need and enjoy. Independent ISPs provide me that service, stimulate innovation, cut costs, and promote efficiency and better engineering. Please help enable them to keep us free!